

Contractor list for fuels reduction in Central Oregon

(Updated October 2021)

We are providing this information just as a courtesy to landowners that might need assistance in clearing or maintaining their properties. We also are not stating that you have to use the contractors listed within this brochure or that this is an exhaustive list. The contractors provided the included information. We will not be held liable for any damages, unsatisfactory work or any other problems or situations in association with this list or contractors.

As always, we urge you to thoroughly check references and solicit multiple bids prior to hiring a contractor for your project.
